

Un-Judging Help

I see, ... You see, ... but we don't all see the same, that's why it's special when someone decides to help see you -
- through your pain;

because what I choose or chose to do, you probably -
- don't understand,

Yet still, while juggling your life plans, you find a way to offer me a hand;

because even though I am a man, I can not stand on my own, especially while residing on a land far-away from home;

So for me · Not to appreciate support of ANY kind, is not illegal, but through my eyes, it's sort-of -
- like a crime;

See I see, and you see, ... but we don't all see the same, that's why it's special when someone decides to help -
- see you through your pain;

Because you may not agree with my Principles & Codes, Yet, while on your own path, you find time -
- to help me on this road;

You could lean a cold shoulder, but instead you -
- extend a warm heart, and that's why in my eyes, your acts are a -

- work of Art;

And for me not to appreciate the things that you do,
would be a sign of an ungrateful mind, ...

See I see, and you see, but we don't all see the same, that's why it's special, when someone decides to -
- help see you through your pain, because you may not relate, (in any way), to what -
- i'm going through,
Yet, while being puzzled... You still try to have a clue;
and that truly is special, especially in this Present Day where everyone is worried about - (Day 17)
- "IF I do this, what are they going to say";
So for me not to appreciate your support -
- just because you care,
Even-though you don't do it for this reason, -
- Would really be unfair;
So even-though I can't show in an extended way -
- that I would like,
I pray you feel the appreciation through these -
- words that I write;
Because I SEE, AND you SEE, But we don't all -
- SEE the same,
So it's special for you to help SEE me -
- through this pain,
So I show my appreciation in all the ways that I can,
And Sincerely Pray, that THE Best, For you is truly -
- IN GODS PLANS.
