

the CAMPAIGN for the FAIR SENTENCING of YOUTH

HEALING & HOPE

A Celebration | November 7, 2017 | Washington, D.C.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Thank you for considering sponsorship for Healing & Hope, an evening reception and awards ceremony in support of the Campaign for the Fair Sentencing of Youth (CFSY), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

It is an inspiring evening that raises crucial funds to end the practice of sentencing youth 17 and younger to life in prison without the possibility of parole.

$25,000 | Healing & Hope Society Members enable major CFSY initiatives. $25,000 allows our advocacy team and members of the Incarcerated Children's Advocacy Network (ICAN) to educate policymakers and seek a ban on life sentences for children in priority states. Members of this Society are recognized via a dedicated Poster displayed prominently at the event, from the dais, prominently on the scrolling slideshow, with a full-page acknowledgement in event program, and receive up to 25 event tickets.

$15,000 | Leader Leaders underwrite the expenses of a full-time Jesuit Volunteer to work directly with individuals impacted by extreme sentences for youth. Leaders are recognized with a dedicated Poster displayed prominently at event, from the dais, on the scrolling slideshow, with a half-page acknowledgement in event program, and receive up to 15 event tickets.

$10,000 | Crusader Crusaders sponsor ten individuals directly impacted by youth violence, such as formerly incarcerated youth and victims' families, to attend our annual National Convening in Washington, DC, where they will hone advocacy skills and inform the CFSY's reform strategies. These sponsored guests will also attend Healing & Hope. Crusaders are recognized in a scrolling slideshow, in the printed program, and receive up to 10 event tickets.

$5,000 | Defender Defenders enable five members of the Incarcerated Children's Advocacy Network to educate key decision-makers such as parole board members, judges, or policymakers about why youth should never be sentenced to life in prison without parole. Defenders are recognized in the scrolling slideshow, in the printed program, and receive up to 5 event tickets.

$2,500 | Champion Champions support the costs of CFSY's recruitment of pro bono attorneys to represent individuals who otherwise would not have robust legal counsel. Champions are recognized in the scrolling slideshow and receive 3 event tickets.

$1,500 | Supporter Supporters are Individuals who provide CFSY with the resources to identify former juvenile lifers, find contact information, and reach out to welcome them home, inform them about ICAN, and offer ways they can join the advocacy effort to end extreme prison sentences for all youth. Supporters are recognized in the scrolling slideshow and receive 2 event tickets. This sponsorship is not available to corporations or law firms.

To give, please email James Puzo (jpuzo@fairsentencingofyouth.org), call (202) 289-4677, ex. 15, or visit our website. Checks may be mailed to 1319 F Street NW, Suite 303, Washington, DC 20004. Thank you.

All donations are tax-deductible excepting a $45 fair market value per ticket.
